RULES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Translation originally issued in Spanish and prepared in accordance with the regulatory applicable to the Group. In the event of a discrepancy, the Spanish-language version prevails.
RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PRELIMINARY TITLE

Article 1.- Purpose

These Rules are laid down for the purpose of regulating the organisation and operation of the Board of Directors, in addition to the Commissions that it sets up, subordinate to the provisions of the legislation in force and the Company Bylaws.

Article 2.- Legal effect and interpretation

These Rules shall come into effect as from their approval and the Board of Directors itself shall be responsible for clarifying any doubts that may arise from their application, by complementing them insofar as it may be necessary.

TITLE ONE

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 3.- Composition and appointments

1. Within the limits stipulated in Article 13 of the Company by-laws in force and notwithstanding the powers of proposal which, under the legislation in force, may correspond to the shareholders, the Board of Directors shall be responsible for proposing to the General Shareholders’ Meeting the number of Board Members and individuals or legal entities to be appointed. The appointment proposal shall specify whether the Board Member is an Executive, Proprietary, Independent or External Board Member.

Furthermore, should any vacancies arise, the Board of Directors may provisionally fill them by appointing Directors by co-option until the next General Shareholders’ Meeting where a definitive appointment shall take place. Should any vacancy arise once the General Meeting has been convened and before it is held, the Board of Directors may appoint a Board Member until the next General Meeting is held. The Director appointed by the Board does not necessarily need to be a Company shareholder.

2. The proposed appointment or re-election of Board members corresponds to the Appointments Committee in the event of Independent Directors and to the Board itself in the remaining cases. In any case, the proposal must be accompanied by a Board of Directors' report justifying its decisions, which assesses the competences, experience and merits of the proposed candidate, which will be attached to the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting or of the Board itself. The proposed appointment or re-election of any Non-Independent Director must also be preceded by a report by the Appointments Committee.

The Board of Directors must ensure that the procedures for selecting Board members encourage diversity, with respect to criteria such as age, gender, disability or training and professional experience, and are not tainted by implicit biases which could represent any form of discrimination and, in particular, that they facilitate the selection of female Board members in sufficient numbers to have balanced numbers of men and women.

3. This article will also apply to individuals who are appointed as representatives of a Director which is a legal entity. The proposal of a representative who is an individual must be included in the Appointments Committee report.

Article 4.- Categories of Directors.

1. Executive Directors perform management functions within the Company or its group, whatever the legal link with the Company. When a Director performs management functions and, at the same time, is or represents a significant shareholder, or when he/she is represented on the Board of Directors, he/she will be deemed to be an Executive Director.

2. Non-Executive Directors are all the remaining Company Directors, and they may be Proprietary, Independent or other External Directors.

3. Proprietary Directors are deemed to be those who own an equity interest equal to or exceeding that legally deemed to be significant, or those who have been appointed in their capacity as shareholders, even if their shareholder investment does not attain that amount, together with those representing the shareholders of those mentioned above.

4. The Proprietary Directors who lose their status as such as a result of the sale of their investment by the shareholder they represented may only be re-elected as Independent Directors when the shareholder they represented until that date has sold all its shares in the Company.
5. Independent Directors are deemed to be those who, appointed in line with their personal and professional status, may carry out their functions without being conditioned by relationships with the Company or its group, its significant shareholders or its executives.

Independent Directors can in no case be considered to be those found to be in the following situations:

a) Employees or Executive Directors of Group Companies, unless 3 or 5 years, respectively, haveelapsed since such relationships ended.

b) Those who receive from the Company, or from its Group, any amount or benefit for items other than Directors' remuneration, unless it is insignificant. For these purposes, neither the dividends nor the pension supplements received by the Director as a result of his/her previous professional or employment relationship will be taken into account, if such supplements are unconditional and, accordingly, if the Company which pays them cannot suspend, modify or revoke their accrual on a discretionary basis without breaching its obligations.

c) Those who are or have been in the last three years partners of the external auditor or head of the auditors' report, since it involves the audit during this this period of the listed Company or of any other Company of its group.

d) Executive Directors or senior executives of another Company other than that in which an Executive Director or senior executive of the Company is an External Director.

e) Those who hold, or who have held in the last year, a significant business relationship with the Company or with any Group company, be it in their own name or as a significant shareholder, Director or senior executive of an entity which maintains or has maintained such relationship. Business relationships will be deemed to be those involving the supplier of goods or services, including financial services, and those involving advisors or consultants.

f) Significant shareholders, Executive Directors or senior executives of an entity which receives, or has received during the last three years, donations from the Company or from its Group. This article will not include those who are mere employers of a foundation which receives donations.

g) Spouses, people tied by a similar relationship of affectivity or relatives up to the second degree of an Executive Director or senior executive of the Company.
h) Those who have not been proposed, either for appointment or renewal, by the Appointments Committee.

i) Those who have been Directors for an on-going period exceeding 12 years.

j) Those who find themselves with respect to any significant shareholder or representative on the Board of Directors in any of the cases indicated in letters a), e), f) or g) above. In the event of any relationship by affinity indicated in letter g), the restriction will be applied not only to the shareholder, but also with respect to its Proprietary Directors at the Investee.

A Director who owns an ownership interest in the Company may be deemed to be an Independent Director, provided that he/she meets all the conditions stipulated in this article and that his/her interest is not material.

Article 5.- Functions

1. In accordance with the terms of Article 18 of the Company Bylaws in effect, the Board of Directors is responsible for representing the Company and administering its business and for carrying out whatever operations may be involved in its purpose or may be related to it.

   In carrying out its functions, the Board of Directors shall act in accordance with Company interests, safeguarding the interests of the shareholders.

2. Under no circumstances may the Board of Directors delegate the following powers:

   a) The supervision of the effective functioning of the Committees set up by it, and of the procedures of the executive bodies and of the executives appointed by it.

   b) The determination of the Company's general policies and strategies.

   c) The authorisation or dispensation of obligations arising from the duty of loyalty.

   d) Its own organisation and functioning.

   e) The preparation of financial statements and their presentation to the General Meeting.
f) The preparation of any type of report required by law by the governing body, provided that the operation referred to in the report cannot be delegated.

g) The appointment and removal of Executive Directors of the Company, and the establishment of the conditions of their contracts.

h) The appointment and removal of executives which were directly answerable to the Board or any of its members, and the establishment of the basic conditions of their contracts, including their remuneration.

i) Decisions relating to the remuneration of Directors, in accordance with the Bylaws and, where appropriate, the remunerations policy approved by the General Meeting.

j) The announcement of the General Shareholders' Meeting and the preparation of the agenda and the proposed resolutions.

k) The policy relating to shares or own shares.

l) The powers delegated by the General Shareholders' Meeting to the Board of Directors, unless it has been expressly authorised by the former to sub-delegate them.

m) The approval of the strategic or business plan, management targets and annual budgets and of investment and financing, corporate social responsibility and dividend policies.

n) The policy for controlling and managing risks, including tax risks, and the supervision of the internal control and reporting systems.

o) The determination of the Company's corporate governance policy and that of the group of which it is the parent; its organisation and functioning and, in particular, the approval and amendment of its own regulations.

p) The approval of the financial information to be periodically made public by the Company given that it is listed on the stock exchange.

q) The definition of the structure of the group of Companies of which the Company is the parent.

r) The approval of investments or operations considered strategic or to have a particular tax risk by virtue of their high amount or special characteristics, unless their approval corresponds to the General Meeting.
s) The approval of the creation or acquisition of ownership interests in special purpose vehicles or entities resident in countries or territories considered to be tax havens, and any other transactions or operations of a similar nature whose complexity might impair the transparency of the Company and its Group.

t) The approval, subject to an Audit Committee report, of the transactions which the Company or Companies of its group perform with Directors, in the terms envisaged in the legislation in force, or with significant shareholders, individually or in agreement with others, including shareholders represented on the Board of Directors of the Company or of other Companies forming part of the same group or with persons related thereto. The Directors in question or which represent or are related to the shareholders in question must abstain from participating in the deliberation and voting of the resolution in issue. This approval will only exclude the operations which simultaneously meet the following three characteristics:

1. They are governed by standard contracts applied on an across-the-board basis to a large number of clients;

2. They are performed at the general prices or rates set by the supplier of the good or service at issue; and

3. Their amount is no more than 1% of the Company's annual revenue.

u) The determination of the Company's tax strategy.

When urgent circumstances arise, which are duly justified, the decisions relating to previous matters may be adopted by the bodies or persons delegated, which must be ratified at the first Board Meeting held following the adoption of the decision.

Article 6.- Duty to inform shareholders

1. In order for the General Shareholders’ Meeting to appropriately perform its functions, the Company’s Board of Directors must make available to shareholders, prior to each Meeting being held, all information that may be legally required or which, without being so, must reasonably be provided in accordance with the interests of the company and of the shareholders, in order for them to lay down criteria. Following this line, the Board of Directors shall be obliged to deal with shareholders’ requests either before or after the Meeting, with the maximum diligence, providing the Company’s interests are not harmed.
2. For the purposes of transparency and maximum distribution of the corresponding information and to facilitate immediate access to it by shareholders, and investors in general, the Board of Directors shall have a Company web page that includes all those documents that are for general dissemination and, especially, the Company Bylaws; the Regulations of the General Shareholders’ Meeting; the Regulations of the Board of Directors; the reports which, in accordance with legislation in force, must be given to the stock markets; the call notices to the General Shareholders’ Meetings and the proposals that are submitted for the deliberation and approval thereof, as well as the resolutions adopted at recently held General Shareholders’ Meetings.

Additionally, the Web Page shall include the composition of the Board of Directors, and the professional profile of each Board Member; other Boards of Directors of which he/she is a member, whether he/she is an Executive or Proprietary Board Member, and the shareholder which he represents; or whether he/she is an Independent or External Board Member; the date on which he/she was first appointed, and if applicable, re-elected; and the Company shares or share options which he/she holds.

Article 7.- Preparation of accounts

The Board of Directors, in view of the report issued by the Audit Committee, shall prepare the Financial Statements and Directors’ Reports, both individual and consolidated, in such terms that, in addition to complying with the legislation in force, make them easy for shareholders and for the general public to understand.

The Minutes of the Board Meeting at which these Financial Statements are prepared shall specify the observations that may be made by the different Board Members individually, especially those that may affect the availability of the necessary information for forming an opinion and casting a vote.

Article 8.- Duties arising from its status as a listed Company

The Board of Directors shall be obliged to adopt or promote the adoption of any measures necessary or expedient in order to safeguard transparency in the Company’s activities on the financial markets and to carry out any function that may arise from its status as a Company listed on the Stock Market.

Article 9.- Annual assessment

1. The Board of Directors must perform an annual assessment of its functioning and that of its Committees and propose, on the basis of its outcome, an action plan to correct the weaknesses detected. The outcome of the assessment will be recorded in the minutes of the related meeting or attached thereto as an appendix.

2. The assessment process will refer in particular to the following aspects:

a) The quality and efficiency of the Board's functioning.

b) The functioning and breakdown of its Committees.

c) Diversity in the breakdown and competences of the Board of Directors.

d) The performance of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of the Company's CEO should he/she not be the Chairman.

e) The performance and contribution of each Director, paying special attention to the heads of the different Board Committees.

3. The assessment of the different Committees will be based on the report submitted by them to the Board of Directors.

4. Every three years, the Board of Directors will be assisted in the performance of the assessment by an external consultant, whose independence will be verified by the Appointments Committee.

Article 10. Sessions and notice

1. The Board shall meet whenever required to do so in the Company’s interests, subject to notice from the Chairman or, in its absence, from a Deputy Chairman, either on his or her own initiative or on the request of, at least, two Board Members or of the coordinating Director referred to in Article 18 of these Rules. In any event, the Board shall meet at least eight times a year to periodically examine the Group’s progress compared to the budgets and the previous accounting period.

2. Call notice shall be granted via letter, email or any other means of written communication that permits verification that it has been received by the various Board Members, including the agenda.

   Except in cases of emergency, which shall be freely determined by the Chairman, notice must be given at least three days in advance of the date on which the Board Meeting is expected to be held.

3. The Board of Directors shall meet at the Company's registered office or at any other location determined by the Chairman and specified in the call notice.
4. Attendance of Board Members at the Board of Directors meetings shall be equally valid by means of remote communication, provided that these means allow the Board Members attending to mutually recognise and identify each other, to be in permanent communication, and to take the floor and vote in real time. Board of Director meetings that are attended by Board Members through means of remote communication, in accordance with that provided in this article, shall be considered unique and held at the location from where the Chairman of the body, or whoever stands in for him, is attending. The meeting minutes and certificates of the resolutions must express the form of adoption thereof.

Article 11.- Quorum of attendance

1. The Board shall be deemed to be constituted when a majority of the attendees are either present or represented at the meeting.

2. Without prejudice to attendance obligations, Board Members who are unable to attend a meeting in person may be represented and cast a vote through another Board Member. This delegation must be in writing to the Chairman and must be in the form of a letter, email or any other written means that acknowledges receipt by the addressee. The Non-Executive Directors may only delegate their representation to another Non-Executive Director.

3. Nevertheless, the Board may be set up, without the need to be convened, when all its members are in attendance, in person or via representatives, and they unanimously decide to set up a session of the Board of Directors together with its agenda.

Article 12.- Adopting agreements

Unless otherwise stipulated in the legislation in force, in the Company Bylaws or in these Rules, the Board of Directors’ agreements shall be adopted by absolute majority of the Board Members attending the meeting, whether present or represented.

The adoption of agreements in writing and without a meeting, shall only be admissible when no Board Member is in disagreement and the other requisites laid down by the legislation in force are complied with.

SECOND TITLE REGARDING BOARD MEMBERS

Article 13.- Term of appointment for Board Members

1. Directors will be appointed for four years. They may be re-elected one or more times for terms of the same maximum duration.
The appointment of the Board Members shall expire when the term has ended and the next General Meeting has been held, or following the legal period within which the Meeting is to be held to resolve on whether or not to approve the financial statements for the previous year.

2. Notwithstanding the above, Proprietary Board Members must resign when the shareholder they represent fully disposes of its shares by any means.

Article 14.- Duties of Board Members

1. General duty of diligence.

   The Directors must perform their functions and comply with the duties imposed by the laws and Bylaws with the diligence of an orderly businessman, taking into account the nature of the post and the functions attributed to each of them.

   The Directors must have adequate devotion and will adopt the measures required to correctly manage and control the Company.

   When performing its functions, the Director must request and has the right to collect the adequate information required from the Company which will serve to comply with its obligations.

2. Duty of loyalty

   The Directors must perform their tasks with the loyalty of a faithful representative, acting in good faith and in the Company's best interests.

   In particular, the duty of loyalty bounds the Director:

   a) To not exercise their powers for purposes other than those for which they were granted.

   b) To keep information, data, reports or history secret to which he/she has had access during the performance of his/her duties, even when he/she has ceased to occupy such positions, except when permitted or required by law.

   c) To abstain from participating in the deliberation and voting of agreements or decisions in which he/she or a related person has a direct or indirect conflict of interests. This obligation to abstain will exclude the resolutions or decisions affecting him/her in his/her capacity as Director, such as his/her appointment or revocation with respect to posts on the Board of Directors or others of similar significance.
d) The Directors must perform their functions under the principle of personal liability with freedom of criteria or judgement and independence with respect to third party instructions or ties.

e) To adopt the measures required to avoid situations in which their interests, be they for their own account or for the account of third parties, may enter into conflict with Company interests and with Company duties.

3. The individual appointed to permanently exercise the functions inherent in the post of legal entity Director must meet the legal requirements set by the Directors, be submitted to the same duties and be jointly and severally liable to the legal entity Director.

Article 15.- Conflicts of interest

1. The duty to avoid conflicts of interests referred to in letter e) of the previous article bind the Directors to abstain from:

   a) The Directors may not perform transactions with the Company, except for ordinary transactions performed in standard conditions for the customers and of scant importance, understood to be those whose information is not required to express fairly the Company's equity, financial position and results.

   b) Using the Company's name or invoking his/her status as Director to unduly influence the performance of private operations.

   c) Making use of Company assets, including confidential Company information, for private purposes.

   d) Taking advantage of Company business opportunities.

   e) Obtaining advantages or remuneration from third parties other than the Company and its Group associated with the discharge of their duties, except when such perks are mere courtesy.

   f) Performing activities, for their own account or for the account of others which involve effective competition, be it current or potential, with the Company or which, in any other way, place them in an on-going conflict vis-à-vis the Company's interests.

2. The foregoing obligation to abstain will also apply when the beneficiary of the acts or activities prohibited is a person tied to the Director. Persons tied to the Directors will also be deemed to be:

   a) The spouse of the Director or the persons with a similar relationship of affectivity.
b) The ascendants, descendants and brothers and sisters of the Director or of his/her spouse.

c) The spouses of the ascendants, descendants and brothers and sisters of the Director.

d) The Companies in which the Director, by him/herself or via an intermediary, is in any of the situations envisaged in section one of article 42 of the Spanish Code of Commerce.

3. With respect to the legal entity Director, the following will be deemed to be related parties:

a) The shareholders who, with respect to the legal entity Director, are in any of the situations envisaged in section one of article 42 of the Spanish Code of Commerce.

b) The Directors, in fact or in law, the liquidators, and the representatives with general powers of the legal entity Director.

c) The Companies which form part of the same group and their shareholders.

d) The persons who, with respect to the representative of the legal entity Director, are considered to be related parties vis-à-vis the Directors in conformity with that set forth in the preceding paragraph.

4. Directors must notify the Board of Directors of any direct or indirect conflict which they or parties related to them may have with respect to the Company's interests.

Conflicts of interest involving Directors must be disclosed in the notes to the financial statements in the terms envisaged in the legislation in force.

Article 16.- System of dispensation

1. The Company may dispense of the prohibitions set forth in the preceding article in specific cases, authorising the performance by a Director or a related person of a certain transaction with the Company, the use of certain social assets, the use of a specific business opportunity, the obtainment of an advantage or the remuneration of a third party.

Authorisation must be necessarily granted by the General Shareholders’ Meeting when it intends to dispense of the prohibition from obtaining an advantage or remuneration from a third party, or it affects a transaction whose value exceeds ten (10) per cent of Company assets. In the remaining cases, authorisation may also be granted by the Board of Directors provided that the independence of members which grant it with respect to the Director dispensed off is guaranteed. Furthermore, it will be necessary to ensure the harmlessness of the operation authorised for Company assets or, where appropriate, its performance on an arm's length basis and the transparency of the process.

2. The Company's obligation not to compete may only be dispensed of in the event it is not expected to cause damage for the Company or that it is expected to be offset by the benefits the Company expects to obtain therefrom. Such dispensation will be granted via a separate express resolution adopted by the General Meeting.

Article 17.- Information to Board Members

Unless the Board of Directors was set up or convened on an exceptional emergency basis, Directors must be furnished sufficiently in advance with the information required to deliberate on and adopt the resolutions on the matters to be dealt with. In conjunction with the Secretary, the Chairman of the Board of Directors will oversee compliance with this provision.

THIRD TITLE
REGARDING POSITIONS ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 18.- The Chairman and the coordinating Director

1. Subject to a report by the Appointments Committee, the Board of Directors will appoint a Chairman from among its members and, where appropriate, one or several Vice Chairmen.

2. The Chairman is the ultimate person in charge of the efficient functioning of the Board of Directors and it will have, among others, the following functions and powers:

a) To convene and chair Board meetings, establishing the meeting agenda and leading debates and deliberations.

b) Unless stated otherwise in the Bylaws, to chair the General Shareholders' Meeting.

c) To ensure that Directors receive sufficient information in advance to deliberate on the points on the agenda.
d) To stimulate debate and the active participation of Directors during the meetings, safeguarding their free posture, ensuring that sufficient time is devoted to discuss strategic matters.

e) To organise and coordinate the frequent assessment of the Board, and of the Company's CEO, if the Chairman does not hold such position.

f) To ensure that refresher programmes exist which enable Directors to bring themselves up to date with their knowledge when the circumstances so advise.

g) To prepare and submit to the Board of Directors a programme of dates and matters to be dealt with.

3. The position of Chairman of the Board of Directors may fall to an Executive Director. In this case, the appointment of the Chairman will require the favourable vote of two thirds of Board members.

4. In the event the Chairman is an Executive Director, the Board of Directors, with the abstention of the Executive Directors, must appoint a coordinating Director from among the Independent Directors, who will have the following powers and responsibilities:

   a) To chair the Board in the absence of the Chairman and Vice Chairmen.

   b) To request that a Board meeting be called or that new points be included on the agenda of an already convened Board meeting.

   c) To coordinate and assemble Non-Executive Directors and to reiterate their concerns, in particular, in relation with the Company's corporate governance.

   d) To manage, where appropriate, the periodic assessment of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

   e) To coordinate the Chairman's succession plan.

Article 19.- The Vice Chairmen

The Board may also elect from among its Board Members one or two Vice Chairmen who shall act as the Chairman in cases of delegation, absence or illness and, in general, perform all the tasks that may be entrusted to them by the Chairman, the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors.
Substitution of the Chairman shall take place by chronological order of the Vice Chairmen's appointment and, in the absence of such order, by order of seniority and, lastly, by order of greater to lesser age.

Article 20.- The Chief Executive Officer

The Board may appoint one or various Chief Executive Officers, delegating him/her the powers deemed expedient except those which, by law or under the Company's Bylaws, cannot be delegated.

When a Board member is appointed CEO or is attributed executive functions by another means, it will be necessary for him/her to enter into a contract with the Company which must be previously approved by the Board of Directors with the favourable vote of two thirds of its members. The Director in question must abstain from deliberation and from participating in the voting. The contract approved must be included as an appendix to the minutes of the meeting.

Article 21. - The Secretary

1. Subject to a report by the Appointments Committee, the Board of Directors will appoint a Secretary and, where appropriate, one or several Deputy Secretaries. The same procedure will be followed to agree the separation of the Secretary and, where appropriate, of each Deputy Secretary. The Secretary and the Deputy Secretaries may or may not be Directors.

2. Aside from the functions assigned by law and under the Company's Bylaws or these Rules, the Secretary must perform the following tasks:

   a) Conserve the documentation of the Board of Directors, make a record in the Minutes books of the holding of the meetings and attest to their content and to the resolutions adopted.

   b) Ensure the Board of Directors' procedures comply with the applicable regulations, the Company's Bylaws and other internal rules, and take into account the good governance recommendations generally accepted or considered by the Spanish listed companies.

   c) Aid the Chairman in ensuring that the Directors receive the relevant information to exercise their functions sufficiently in advance in the adequate format.
TITLE FOUR
REGARDING THE BOARD COMMITTEES

Article 22.- The Committees

For greater efficiency in the exercise of its duties and without prejudice to the statutory powers that correspond to the Board for the creation of the Committees that it deems necessary, an Executive Committee will comprise, with delegated powers from the board, an Audit, an Appointments and a Remuneration, with the functions that are established in these Rules within the framework of current legislation and the Company Bylaws.

Article 23.- The Executive Committee

The Executive Committee will comprise the Chairman of the Board of Directors, who will act as its Chairman, and by the Vice Chairman or both Vice Chairmen of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee and the CEO, in the event that these positions had been appointed, of Board Members appointed by the Board of Directors for such purpose, and of the Secretary to the Board, with the right to speak but not to vote, who will act as its Secretary.

The Executive Committee will meet as often as it is convened by its Chairman, on his or her own initiative or at the request of, at least, two of its members. It will be deemed to be set up when the majority of its members attend, present or represented, and unless the legislation in force, the Company Bylaws or these Rules provide otherwise, it will adopt its agreements by majority vote of those attending, present or represented.

The Executive Committee will exercise all duties delegated thereto by the Board of Directors, except those that cannot be delegated by law or the Company Bylaws. Nevertheless, the Board of Directors may pass on knowledge of and the decision upon any matter of its competence and, for its part, the Executive Committee may subject the decision on any matter to the Board of Directors, which even though a matter of its competence, deems necessary or expedient for the Board to decide upon.

Insofar as it were deemed necessary, and with the natural adaptations, the operation of the Executive Committee will be governed by the provisions of these rules regarding the operation of the Board of Directors.
Article 24.- The Audit Committee

1. In accordance with the provisions of Article 21 of the Company Bylaws, there shall be an Audit Committee made up of a minimum of three and a maximum of five members who shall be appointed and discharged, from among its members, by the Board of Directors. Under no circumstances may such appointment fall to anyone who currently performs or who has carried out tasks of an executive or labour-related nature at the Company during the three immediately preceding years. The majority of the members of the Audit Committee shall be Independent Directors and one of them shall be appointed on the basis of his or her knowledge and experience in accounting or auditing or both. Notwithstanding the above, steps shall be taken to ensure that all members of the Audit Committee – especially its Chair – are appointed on the basis of their knowledge and expertise in accounting, auditing or risk management and also in all areas which are helpful in performing all their duties for the Audit Committee, such as finance, internal monitoring and information technology.

In turn, without prejudice to the obligation to promote diversity in terms of gender and of geographic origin, the Audit Committee members must have relevant technical skills in relation to the Company's area of activity.

2. The Committee Chairman shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and shall necessarily correspond to one of the Company's Independent Directors, who may not remain in such position for a period in excess of four years, although he/she may, nevertheless, be re-elected after the period of one year has elapsed from the moment of cessation. The Chairman of the Committee shall act as its spokesman at meetings of the Board of Directors and, where applicable, the company’s General Shareholders Meeting.

The Secretary to the Company’s Board of Directors shall attend meetings with the right to speak but not to vote. Their role shall be to assist the Chairman of the Committee in planning the meetings, compile and distribute the necessary information in sufficient time, and take the minutes, copies of which shall be sent upon approval to each of the members of the Board of Directors.

3. Under the supervision of the Audit Committee, it will have a unit which will assume the internal audit function to oversee the sound functioning of the reporting and internal control systems. From a functional standpoint, it will be answerable to the Non-Executive Chairman of the Board or to that of the Audit Committee. The head of internal audit should present an annual work program to the Audit Committee; inform it directly of any incidents arising during its implementation; and submit an activities report at the end of each year.

4. The notice of a meeting, which must always include the agenda and should be accompanied by the necessary information, although in certain circumstances, it may be justified to distribute all or part of the information at the meeting itself, rather than in advance. The Audit Committee shall be deemed duly convened when the majority of its members are present, and it shall adopt its agreements by the majority vote of those attending, with the Chairman having the casting vote in the event of a tie.

5. The Audit Committee will meet as many times as convened by its Chairman and, in any case, it must coincide with the initial and final phases of the audit of the Company’s financial statements and the consolidated financial statements of its Group of Companies, prior to the issuance of the corresponding auditors’ reports, as well as upon the process of preparing financial reporting packages which must be made public by the Company.

The Company’s Auditor may attend such Audit Committee meetings, whenever especially convened for the purpose of explaining the most significant aspects of the audits performed, and so may the internal auditor. Neither shall be present, however, for the decision-making portion of the meeting, when the Committee is required to take the relevant decisions.

6. The Audit Committee shall have the following functions:

   As pertains to oversight of the financial information:

   a) To inform the General Shareholders’ Meeting of matters envisaged in relation to those issues which are the competency of the Committee, and in particular, of the result of the audit, explaining how it contributed to the integrity of the financial information, and the role which the Committee played in that process.

   b) To supervise the preparation and presentation of the company’s, and where applicable the Group’s, financial information, reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements and ensuring the adequacy of the consolidation scope defined and appropriate application of accounting criteria and, in particular, being aware of, understanding and supervising the effectiveness of the internal financial information control system (SCIIF). The Committee may present recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors, with the aim of safeguarding the integrity of the financial information.

c) To provide the Board of Directors with prior notice about the financial information that the Company is required to publish periodically.

d) To ensure that the Board of Directors is able to present the accounts to the General Shareholders’ Meeting without limitations or provisos in the audit report and that, in the exceptional circumstances where there are provisos, both the Chairman of the Board and the auditors can clearly explain to the shareholders the content and scope of those limitations or provisos.

As pertains to the oversight of the internal control and internal audit:

e) To oversee the efficiency of the Company’s internal control, and the internal audit and, with the account auditor, to discuss any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected during the audit process, without infringing its independence, drawing conclusions as to the level of trustworthiness and reliability of the system. For these purposes, where necessary, the Audit Committee may present recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors and indicate the corresponding period of time for follow-up of these recommendations.

f) To oversee the independence of the internal audit unit; propose the selection, appointment, re-election and removal of the head of the internal audit department; propose the budget for the service; approve its orientation and work plans, ensuring that activities are directed principally towards key risks for the company; receive regular information on internal activities; ensure that senior management takes the conclusions and recommendations of internal audit reports into consideration; and annually assess the workings of the internal audit unit and the performance of its duties by the person responsible for the unit.
g) To establish and oversee a mechanism enabling employees to confidentially report potentially significant breaches – especially in matters of finance and accounting – which they discover within the company, receiving periodic information about its workings and being able to put forward proposals as to appropriate actions to improve matters and reduce the risk of future irregularities.

As pertains to the oversight of risk management and control:

h) To oversee the efficiency of the risk management systems.

i) At least once a year, to reassess the list of most significant risks, both financial and otherwise, and evaluating their tolerance level, proposing adjustments to the Board of Directors where necessary. For these purposes, the Committee shall, at least once a year, hold a meeting with the heads of the various business lines, for those managers to explain trends in their line of business, and the associated risks.

j) To directly oversee the performance of the internal control and risk management functions carried out by any unit or Department of the Company.

In relation to the external auditor:

k) To feed back to the Board of Directors any proposals for the selection, appointment, re-election and replacement of the external auditor, taking responsibility for the selection process, and for the conditions of their engagement, and for this purpose, the Committee must:

1. define the process for selection of the auditor; and

2. issue a reasoned proposal containing at least two alternatives for auditor selection, except in cases of re-election of the same auditor.

l) To regularly gather information from the external auditor regarding the audit plan, its execution and any other issues relating to the account auditing process – in particular, any disagreements which arise between the account auditor and the Company management, as well as to preserve its independence in the exercise of its functions.

m) To establish the appropriate relationships with the external auditor for the purpose of receiving information on any matter which may compromise its independence, for examination by the Committee, and any other matter relating to the process of auditing the accounts and, where necessary, authorization of services other than those which are prohibited, in the conditions set forth in the applicable legislation, as any other communications prescribed by the legislation in account auditing and in the auditing standards.

In any case, the Company must receive an annual declaration from the external auditors regarding their independence vis-à-vis the entities directly or indirectly related to the Company, together with information on additional services of any kind provided and the related fees received from these companies by the external auditor or by persons or entities related thereto, in accordance with the audit legislation in force.

n) To issue annually, prior to the issue of the auditors’ report, a report in which it gives its opinion on the independence of the auditor. In any case, this report should inform on the provision of the additional service referred to in the previous section, individually and globally considered, other than the legal audit and in relation with the independence system or the audit regulations.

Should the external auditor resign, examine the circumstances leading to such decision.

o) Ensure that the remuneration of the external auditor does not compromise its quality or independence, and establish a guideline cap on fees that the auditor can be paid, each year, for services other than auditing.

p) Ensure that the company notifies any change of auditors to the CNMV as a significant event, accompanied by a statement of any disagreements arising with the outgoing auditors and, if any, of their content.

q) Ensure that the external auditor holds an annual meeting with the Board of Directors to inform it of the work performed and of the evolution of the Company’s accounting situation and risks.

r) Ensure that the Company and the external auditor comply with the applicable laws regarding the provision of services other than auditing services, restrictions on the concentration of the external auditor’s business, and, in general, with other laws.
stipulated to safeguard the independence of auditors.

s) To perform a final assessment regarding the auditor's performance, and how they have contributed to the quality of the audit and the integrity of the financial information.

Other roles:

t) To report to the Board of Directors on all matters where so required by Law, the By-Laws and the Board Regulations, in particular with regard to:

1. the economic conditions and the impact on accounting matters and, where applicable, on the proposed exchange ratio, of structural and corporate modifications which the Company plans to carry out.

2. the creation or acquisition of investments in special purpose vehicles registered in countries or territories listed as tax havens; and

3. related-party transactions.

The stipulations of paragraphs k), l), m) and n) above apply without prejudice to prevailing legislation governing auditing.

7. Before attending meetings of the Audit Committee, members must put in sufficient effort to analyze and assess the information received. In addition, at Committee meetings, constructive dialog and free expression between the members will be encouraged, and members will be encouraged to adopt a vigilant and analytical attitude. The Chairman of the Committee must ensure that members are freely participating in the discussions.

8. Also, the Audit Committee may convene any Company employee or manager, even ordering their appearance without the presence of another senior executive, and also insist that other persons attend their sessions, though only by invitation of the Chairman of the Committee, and only to address those specific points of the agenda which they are called to explain, provided the matter at hand justifies such a measure.

The Audit Committee must establish an effective channel for periodic communication with their usual interlocutors, normally between the Chairman of the Committee and, amongst others, the Company management – in particular, the general management and finance department, the head of internal audits, and the main auditor responsible for account auditing. In particular, communication between the Audit Committee and the external auditor must be free and continuous, in accordance with the regulations on account auditing.

9. The Audit Committee may have adequate access, when required, to any information or documentation the Company has, and may receive advice from external experts when deemed necessary for the Committee to discharge its duties properly.

10. The Company must provide the Audit Committee with sufficient resources to perform its duties. In particular, the Committee shall have a periodic training plan to help update the Committee members' knowledge, and a program shall also be run to help integrate new Committee members.

11. The Audit Committee shall establish an annual work plan listing the main activities the Committee intends to carry out over the course of the year. In addition, the Committee will produce an annual report on its operation during the year, including, amongst other things, significant activities carried out over that period, specifying those which have been conducted with the help of external experts.

12. Insofar as it were deemed necessary, and with the natural adaptations, the operation of the Audit Committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Rules regarding the functioning of the Board of Directors.

Article 25.- Functions of the Audit Committee in the area of corporate governance and social responsibility

In addition to the functions listed in the previous article, the Audit Committee will supervise compliance with the corporate governance rules, the internal codes of conduct and the corporate social responsibility policy, and it has been attributed the following functions:

a) Supervision of compliance with the Company's internal codes of conduct and corporate governance rules.

b) Supervision of the communication strategy and relationship with shareholders and investors, including small- and medium-sized shareholders.

c) Periodic assessment of the adaptation of the Company's corporate governance system, in order to comply with its mission of promoting social interest and taking into account, where appropriate, the legitimate interests of the remaining groups of interest.
d) Review of the Company's corporate responsibility policy, ensuring that it is aimed at creating value.

e) Monitoring of the corporate social responsibility strategy and practice and assessment of the extent to which it is complied with.

f) Supervision and assessment of the relationship processes with the different groups of interest.

g) The assessment of everything related to the Company's non-financial risks - including operating, technological, legal, social, environmental, political and reputational risks.

h) Coordination of the reporting process of non-financial information and on diversity, in accordance with the applicable regulations and the international benchmark standards.

Article 26. -The Appointment Committee

Likewise, the Board of Directors will set up an Appointment Committee to be made up of a Chairman and a minimum of two Members who will be freely elected and moved, from among its members, by the Board of Directors, and who will perform their functions during the term of four years for which they were appointed. At least two Members must be Independent Directors and the Chairman of the Committee will be appointed from among the Independent Directors who form a part of it.

The Secretary to the Board of Directors will attend the Committee’s meetings, will act as its Secretary, with entitlement to participate but not to vote, and will write up the Minutes of the meeting, which will be forwarded to all members of the Board of Directors following their approval.

The meeting will only be deemed to be convened when the majority of its members attend and agreements will be adopted by majority vote of those attending, with the Chairman having the casting vote in the event of a tie. The Committee will meet, when convened by the Chairman, at least twice a year.

The Appointment Committee has the following duties:

1. To evaluate the capabilities, expertise and experience required by the Board of Directors. For these purposes, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee shall define the necessary skills and abilities of the candidates to cover any vacancy and shall evaluate the time and dedication required to discharge the related duties effectively.

2. To make proposals to the Board of Directors for the appointment of independent Directors by co-option or by approval at the Shareholders’ General Meeting, as well as proposals for the re-election or removal of such Board Members by the Shareholders’ General Meeting;

3. To make proposals for the appointment of other Board Members by co-option or by approval at the Shareholders’ General Meeting, as well as proposals for the re-election or removal of such Board Members by the Shareholders’ General Meeting.

4. To make proposals for the appointment of the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

5. To examine and organize the succession of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and, if applicable, to make proposals to the Board of Directors for such succession to occur in an orderly and well-planned fashion.

6. The proposed appointment and removal of Senior Executives, especially those who will form part of the Group’s Management Committee, and the basic conditions of their contracts.

7. To make proposals to the Board of Directors as to diversity policy on the basis of criteria such as age, disability, level of training, professional experience and gender, setting concrete objectives in this matter.

The provisions established in these rules regarding the operation of the Board of Directors will be applied to the Appointment Committee as necessary and with the natural adaptations.

Article 27. -The Remuneration Committee

Likewise, the Board of Directors will set up a Remuneration Committee to be made up of a Chairman and a minimum of two Members who will be freely elected and moved, from among its members, by the Board of Directors, and who will perform their functions during the term of four years for which they were appointed. At least two Members must be Independent Directors and the Chairman of the Committee will be appointed from among the Independent Directors who form a part of it.
The Secretary to the Board of Directors will attend the Committee’s meetings, will act as its Secretary, with entitlement to participate but not to vote, and will write up the Minutes of the meeting, which will be forwarded to all members of the Board of Directors following approval.

The meeting will only be deemed to be convened when the majority of its members attend and agreements will be adopted by majority vote of those attending, with the Chairman having the casting vote in the event of a tie. The Committee will meet, when convened by the Chairman, at least twice a year.

The Remuneration Committee has the following duties:

1. To report to the Board of Directors on policy regarding the remuneration of directors and general managers or other persons discharging senior management functions and reporting directly to the Board of Directors, executive committees or Executive Board Members, and to verify compliance with the policy established.

2. To make proposals on the distribution of the overall remuneration agreed upon by the shareholders at the General Meeting, between the members of the Board of Directors.

3. To make proposals on individual remuneration and other contractual conditions for members of the Executive Board

4. To propose long-term plans that may be established in accordance with share value, such as stock option plans.

Insofar as may be necessary, and with the appropriate adaptations, the functioning of the Remunerations Committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Rules regulating the functioning of the Board of Directors.
