

ACS again included in Dow Jones Sustainability Index

Madrid, November 16th, 2020

ACS, Actividades de Construcción y Servicios, has been included in Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), both in the global index (DJSI World) and in the European one (DJSI Europe).

These indexes are one of the main global benchmarks in terms of governance and sustainability, and acknowledge leading firms following different criteria such as economic, environmental and social performance using great demanding assessment methodologies and criteria.

Belonging to one of these DJSI indexes entails the acknowledgement of ongoing commitment and effort coming from all ACS Group subsidiaries in terms of shared sustainability and value generation to all society.

Accordingly, HOCHTIEF and CIMIC, ACS Group listed companies, are also included in the DJSI. Specifically, HOCHTIEF has been included in DJSI World and CIMIC, on its side, has been incorporated in DJSI Australia.
