1.- For what purposes do we process your personal data and for how long?

ACS processes your data for the following purposes, under no circumstances making any exclusively automated decisions that may affect you in any way or for are any purposes other than those for which we use your data:

a) Control of access to facilities and parking and video surveillance, by virtue of the legitimate interest we have in it, which may also coincide with the public interest. Your data will be stored for a maximum of one (1) month from your visit to our facilities.

b) Exceptionally, to defend the company's interests and legal advice, being authorised to do so by virtue of our legitimate interest in defending the rights and interests of ACS and as necessary to file, bring or defend claims. We will retain the data necessary for this purpose while the claims or in- or out-of-court proceedings requiring this information in which ACS is an interested party are ongoing.

2.- Types of data we process and how we obtain them

For the purposes described above, we can process the following types of data: identification (including your image), employment and other types of data (vehicle registration numbers).

The data processed are provided to us by you.

3.- Who will we share you data with?

We may share your personal data with the following individuals or legal entities:

- Public authorities or bodies (such as, but not limited to, Tax Authorities, Courts or other possible dispute resolution bodies and Notaries and Public Registries).
- State Security Forces and Bodies.

In addition, the following ACS providers may need to access some of your personal data to provide us with the service we have contracted:

- Prosegur, for access to the facilities and video surveillance system.
- CLECE S.A., for control of access to parking areas.
- Consultancy and legal advisory firms.
- Court representatives

ACS applies strict controls in the selection and contracting of its suppliers, to ensure that they can only access your personal data for the sole purpose of providing us with the contracted service, following our instructions, applying strict protection measures and without them being able to use them for any other purpose or, in general, share them with third parties.

Unless legally required, we will not share your personal data with any other individual or legal entity.

4.- International data transfers

we do not envisage any international transfer of their data (which occurs if their data are transferred to or accessed from outside the EEA) as a result of the data processing described above. However, if the international transfer of you data is necessary, we will implement the appropriate mechanisms to ensure that the processing of your data outside the EEA will take place with the same level of protection as required in Europe.

5.- What are your rights in relation to the processing of your data?

You are entitled to receive information relating to the processing, accessing, rectifying and, where appropriate, erasing your data, as well as, in certain circumstances, information relating to restricting and objecting to their processing, and to the portability of your data under certain circumstances.

You may exercise your right of objection with regard to the purposes that, as described above, are based on the satisfaction of a legitimate or public interest. This right may be denied if, in view of the request made, there are compelling legitimate grounds prevail for the processing or if your data are necessary to file, bring or defend claims.

You can exercise these rights by writing to ACS, ACTIVIDADES DE CONSTRUCCIÓN Y SERVICIOS, S.A. at Avda. Pío XII, 102, 28036 Madrid (Madrid), Spain or via email at pdd@grupoacs.com.

Likewise, we inform you that you are entitled to file a claim with the competent control authority (in Spain, the Spanish Data Protection Agency or any agency that may replace it in the future), if you consider that any type of infringement has occurred in relation to the processing of your personal data.
